PRESS RELEASE

Mayor Jody Jones to Meet with Legislators in Washington D.C. to discuss Camp Fire Recovery and Aid

Town of Paradise Mayor Jody Jones is traveling to Washington D.C. next week to meet with Legislators to advocate for Camp Fire Survivors. Mayor Jones will be joined by Butte County Supervisors Steve Lambert and Bill Connelly as she meets with our Federal legislators to discuss the continued impacts of the Camp Fire on Paradise residents and vocalize the need for aid in our long-term recovery effort. During her time in the Capitol, Mayor Jones is scheduled to meet with:

The White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs
Senators Diane Feinstein and Kamala Harris
The Senate Committee on Appropriations
The US Forest Service
The Senate Committee on Banking
The Senate Committee on the Environment and Public Works
Congressmen LaMalfa, McClintock, Halbert, and Garamendi
The House Committee on Financial Services

Mayor Jones will be in Washington D.C. from April 2 -4th and will provide updates as she attends these important meetings.

Mayor Jones noted "I'm hopeful that the trip will be productive and will bring resources to the Town of Paradise."
